

Predictive-interval calibration of the inverse model (n = 200 coretop sites)

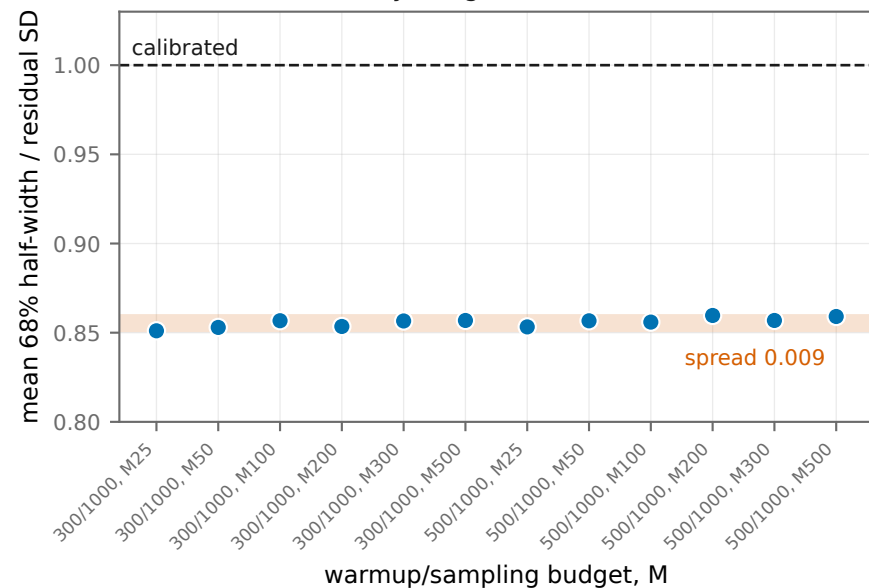

(a) reconstruction vs measurement

(b) an interval labelled 68% contains the truth 60% of the time

(c) stable across every budget

(d) even a 20x cut in M moves nothing

